MIT-Philippines-Palawan Mission Project

Hello AWA friends and family,

I am grateful to God for His blessings this last month! We traveled to California to do some presentations for AWA and the Philippines project in particular. We stepped out in faith the month before, because we sensed God leading us there through the efforts of a friend of ours. He wanted us to come and promote AWA and our work in the Philippines at some of the churches in the Loma Linda area. We thought that was a good idea since there are a lot of churches there compared to Kentucky and a number of Filipino churches that we knew would have a burden for the work in the Philippines.

We set out making preparations and everything fell into place as we had need. Plane tickets, housing, transportation, speaking engagements, money for food and other expenses all came to us as needed. It was nothing less than miraculous! When we got there we felt a little overwhelmed by the undertaking, but God guided us through every step and we spoke to people about the needs of aviation in the Philippines and how we are watching the necessary pieces fall in place for this endeavor to bless people with a living message of God's love through the ministering tool of aviation and share that He can abide in their hearts as well.

The churches were thrilled with the thought of us going to the country of their origin and supported us wholeheartedly. We also met people in California who had a heart to serve as volunteers. Keep them in prayer as they seek to give their talents to the Lord and His work.

We, the Fix family, have a vision to serve as missionaries in the southern part of Palawan where many tribes do not have immediate access to life-saving medical care. As we become a part of their communities, living with them and becoming their neighbors, the doors are open for us to share the Good News of Jesus' soon return.

Only through God's amazing grace, power and glory have I recently achieved my commercial rating as a pilot. Now I am ready to use it to further His work. Will you partner with us in making this vision the Lord has placed in our hearts a reality? In Luke 10:2 it says, "The harvest is plentiful but the laborers are few."

Thank you for taking the time to read our mission report, and thank you for your love, prayers and support.

Sincerely,
Josh and Yosy
