

Hello everyone,

Things are warming up here in Kentucky and things are starting to move again as the Covid19 restrictions are lightening up. We know that this is another one of earth's birth pains and that more are already starting to come as we near Christ's return. We're thankful to be retaining our sanity thanks to God's goodness.

As we wait for all the ducks to get in a row for us to go on our survey trip to Nicaragua, I am trying to take advantage of the time to study some of the unique points of our faith. I've prayed the prayer for wisdom and insight and even though I'm not the sharpest tool in the shed, so to speak, I have seen God's hand leading me to truth like a tender Shepherd.

If I had to put a belief at the top of the Seventh-day Adventist unique beliefs list, it would be the belief in a heavenly sanctuary. This belief sets us apart and I would highly recommend availing yourself of an in-depth study of the means of our salvation because surely the sanctuary testifies of the Savior. Just think about it for a moment with me. Most of us know that the sacrifices typify Christ's death on the cross. Why all the details in the services of the sanctuary? Why be so specific, methodical, and elaborate, if not to show in every detail a little lesson?

I'm trying to take advantage of the resources out there and one book I'm working through right now is called "The Cross and It's Shadow" by S.N. Haskell. Get one! Or you can get it free online. I read from the EGW writings app a lot. It's an awesome resource.

I believe it is important to know where we came from as Seventh-day Adventists. How did God brought us this far? Imagine if you will, the children of Israel after wandering in the wilderness for 40 years and not passing on the story of God's deliverance from Egypt. Imagine them forgetting where they were headed. Then one day someone says that Egypt is nice this time of year and that everyone should pack up and head on over.

I fear that this story is close to being our reality as Seventh-day Adventists. Let us not forget the way the Lord had led us in the past. To help with this I'd recommend the book "The Great Second Advent Movement" by J.N. Loughborough. Sister White said "Elder Loughborough's book should receive attention. Our leading men should see what can be done for the circulation of this book." It shares the history of our movement from a perspective of a person that worked right alongside Ellen White.

Lord knows the time is short. Rearrange priorities if you need to and learn the truths for these times and pray God will use you wherever you may be. This is our prayer at AWA. Join us in our effort to reach the hard to reach with life as well as soul saving assistance. Thank you.

God bless you!
