

Hello friends,

I'm here relaxing after a long day of working at the AWA hanger. We're here in North Carolina where AWA is headquartered. I've been working alongside Kyle Stevenson, AWA's chief mechanic, and have been appreciating his many years of experience as I can ask him questions and he can go behind me and verify my work.

We've been working on the annual inspection for the airplane that's going to Nicaragua. We're making sure everything is in working condition and ready for long flight to Nicaragua and for the field once there.

When I think about it, it's kinda like what we need to be doing right now while Christ is interceding in the Most Holy Place. We are told in the book of Leviticus that the Day of Atonement was a day to afflict your soul. Ellen White tells us in the book Patriarchs and Prophets regarding the Old Testament Day of Atonement that, "every man was to afflict his soul while the work of atonement was going forward. All business was laid aside, and the whole congregation of Israel spent the day in solemn humiliation before God, with prayer, fasting, and deep searching of heart." PP 355.4

As we are also in the great antitypical Day of Atonement and have been since 1844, now is the time for us to come humbly before the Master Inspector and ask, “search me, O God, and know my heart: try me, and know my thoughts: And see if there be any wicked way in me, and lead me in the way everlasting.” Psalms 139:23-24

Now is not the time to say, “I am rich and increased with goods and have need of nothing,” just to find out that the complete opposite is true. (Revelation 3:17)

In aviation when we discover something that needs fixing we call the issue a squawk. It’s noted and then addressed and corrected by the appropriate personnel.

I want to commit myself to the greatest Heart Mechanic of all and let Him reveal my faults to me so I can surrender them to Him and by His grace be able to be a part of that group who “keep the commandments of God, and have the testimony of Jesus Christ.”

Please keep our family in prayer as we strive to be like our Savior and reveal Him to the people around us and soon to the people of Nicaragua.

God bless you!

Josh, Yosiday, Caleb and Isaac Fix
