

Guyana - Land of Many Waters

According to Guyana News, the severe economic fallout from the COVID-19 pandemic is affecting many countries. Guyana is no exception. The Minister of Public Works, Juan Edghill, said the government is “aggressively” working to recommence commercial flight operations at Guyana’s two international airports in the shortest possible time, while assuring that measures are in place to do so safely.

In the meantime, Brother Alfi is our resident security detail for our Mabaruma base and Mr. Charles is caring for our Georgetown flat. Like a loving parent is proud of their children, so we are so very proud of our local team members who have proven themselves to carry the torch of ministering to others and continuing to encourage each other in these challenging times.

Please continue to lift our Guyana Project in prayer. The Runne family are willing to be our Guyana family missionaries and Kabwe is willing to be the AWA Wings for Humanity missionary pilot.

Our project, located in Region 1, Barima Waini, has a 20-ft, 115 HP 4-stroke aluminum haul boat which is used to minister to the surrounding river communities; most specifically, the communities of Blackwater, Hotoquai and Saint Mary's. We are anxiously waiting for international travel to Guyana to open so we can continue the wonderful ministry there.

God's timing is always perfect. Thank you to all of our devoted partners and supporter team members for this project. Your prayers and heartfelt support enable us to deliver much needed humanitarian support and most importantly the Gospel message to hearts and minds that the Holy Spirit is preparing in advance of our return. To God be the glory!

“To every thing there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven: A time to be born, and a time to die; a time to plant, and a time to pluck up that which is planted; A time to kill, and a time to heal; a time to break down, and a time to build up; A time to weep, and a time to laugh; a time to mourn, and a time to dance; A time to cast away stones, and a time to gather stones together; a time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing; A time to get, and a time to lose; a time to keep, and a time to cast away; A time to rend, and a time to sew; a time to keep silence, and a time to speak; A time to love, and a time to hate; a time of war, and a time of peace. I said in mine heart, God shall judge the righteous and the wicked: for there is a time there for every purpose and for every work.”

— Ecclesiastes 3:1-8, 17

PRAYER REQUEST:
For Guyana to open its borders for international travel so our AWA team can travel to our mission base and conduct the necessary annuals on our aircraft.

PROJECT NEEDS:
Despite the chaos happening in the world, God's people are taking a stand and acts to fulfill the Gospel Commission. The Guyana Project needs prayer and financial partners for Caleb and Glenda Runne and family and for Kabwe, our Guyana Project Missionaries-in-Training.
