

A New Dress

Now you're dressed in a new wardrobe. Every item of your new way of life is custom-made by the Creator, with His label on it. All the old fashions are now obsolete. (Colossians 3:10-20).

Do you like having a new dress to wear to church (or new suit if you are a fellow)?

During my visit to Nicaragua, I took notice of the dresses the little girls wore in the market and what they would wear to church.

I know firsthand that not all families in the community of La Tronquera and Waspan, where our AWA Nicaragua project is based, have the necessary finances beyond daily living and food purchases to buy a new dress like we do in North America. But they make the effort for Sabbath and I wonder what was sacrificed from the families' daily needs to buy a new dress.

Living in North America we have been blessed with bountiful resources when it comes to clothing. Every year I budget for a new Sabbath dress, BUT in this new year of 2021 and after traveling and seeing firsthand the daily living needs of others, my desire for something new changed.

SO, this year the money that I would normally budget for me to buy a new Sabbath dress will be given to AWA Where Needed Most. This enables AWA's outreach for the much-needed medical flights, clothing distribution, food donations, lifestyle, education and health classes to all the indigenous communities and projects that AWA facilitates.

God bless your generous donations in 2021 for Sioux Lookout, Ontario, Canada, and Nicaragua.

A recurring donation blesses AWA to continue reaching those in need, helping the helpless and giving hope to the hopeless.

Please go online (flyawa.org) or call the office today: 919-938-2920 in the US and 778-753-6564 in Canada to donate.

Thank you for your prayers and support!

God bless you all,

Julie Young,

AWA Canada Administrative Assistant

I ASK YOU...

our cherished donors, to welcome in the New Year of 2021 by pledging with me to donate what you may have budgeted for your new Sabbath dress this year.

Happy New Year!

Thank you for all your 2020 donations!

“So, as God’s own chosen people, who are holy [set apart, sanctified for His purpose] and well-beloved [by God Himself], put on a heart of compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness, and patience [which has the power to endure whatever injustice or unpleasantness comes, with good temper];

Beyond all these things put on and wrap yourselves in [unselfish] love, which is the perfect bond of unity [for everything is bound together in agreement when each one seeks the best for others].

Whatever you do [no matter what it is] in word or deed, do everything in the name of the Lord Jesus [and in dependence on Him], giving thanks to God the Father through Him.”

— Colossians 3:12,14,17 AMP
