

A JOURNEY

We are extremely excited about how God is working in and through the Runne family as they progress closer to their missionary home in Guyana. Each missionary has unique experiences as they prepare for deployment to their respective missionary home abroad, but one thing is certain, it is a road less traveled, and the journey is filled with opportunities to experience God's presence in a real and personal way. The Runne family is no exception. One of the more important hallmarks in this journey is growing a support team of individuals who sense God leading them to support Caleb, Glenda, Jordana and Enoch in the work He has called them to do as a family in Guyana. Partnering with the Runne family as part of their support team includes, but is not limited to, agreeing to regularly lift the Runnes up in prayer. If you are willing to pray for them, you meet the basic qualification as a support team member. As God reveals needs and opportunities, consider the Runne family's financial and logistical support needs. When you support the Runne's with prayers and financial support, not only are you blessings others, but you will receive a blessing as you follow God in service with Him.

The Runne family are currently in a transition from missionaries-in-training to missionaries in service to Guyana. They are open to opportunities to share their Calling with anyone and invite others to join their support team. Recently, they were at Thompsonville, Illinois and were guests of the 3ABN Today show (3 Angels Network). Afterwards, they were the invited speakers at the Evansville Church in Indiana. At these two events, they have developed new friendships and brothers and sisters in Christ.

As a self-supporting ministry of the Seventh-day Adventist Church, AWA missionaries raise 100% of their support to serve in the mission field. It reminds me of the story of Elijah and the widow of Zarephath found in 1 Kings 17:7-16. God is truly faithful to bless as He promises!

Scripture Theme for 2021
 “Repent ye therefore, and be converted, that your sins may be blotted out, when the times of refreshing shall come from the presence of the Lord.”
 —Acts 3:19

A Barrel of Blessings

A 70-gallon plastic barrel was donated to the Runne family and just in time - literally! For the past few weeks Caleb, Glenda, Jordana and Enoch have been busy preparing for their pre-deployment assessment scheduled in August. They have items they would like to send ahead of time so that they can be used for their ministry while in country. The donated barrel can now be used to ship books, toys, and all sorts of items to be used and shared during their 30-day visit. God provides what we need before we even know it! He is Jehovah-Jireh, our Provider.

Blocks Next Door

Hollow blocks are blocking our view of the jungle. Right next to our Learning Center and our hangar now stands a hollow-block-making enterprise. It is quite an eyesore, but we know that somehow God has a plan. Block-making is a labor-intensive process with only one young man producing hundreds of blocks a day. Maybe, just maybe, this young man is ripe for the harvest... Please pray for this young man and that his heart and mind are open to hear the Gospel.

God bless each one of you!
