

Visual Reminders of God's Love and Care

Occasionally, I review my archives so I will remember the mighty acts of God in my history. It helps me to face the future in this world which is wrapped in turmoil and uncertainty. In the 16 years I lived and worked in the Northwest Arctic I was daily surrounded with the evidence of God's care and His appreciation of beauty, which overflows even in the high latitudes. Though we are now living thousands of years down the line since God's Creation, one can still see and appreciate what God has done.

I remember the day when the accompanying photo was taken. I had flown some government surveyors in our floatplane about 100 miles up the Kobuk River from Kotzebue, which is where my base was at the time. The surveyors work would consume several hours during which I would standby. It was a warm day with temperatures in the 70s Fahrenheit. My typical activities during such standby charters would be to read a book, take a nap, or, after being sure that the airplane was secured to the riverbank, I might take a little hike, watching closely for grizzly bears.

On this particular day, I was overwhelmed with the beauty. It was as “perfect” a day as humans get to experience. The reflection on the mirror finishes of the river made me visualize the “sea of glass”—a feature of the New Jerusalem—which will soon be a reality for those who are found in Christ.

I believe God is planning great things to reach His children both in the out-of-the-way places and the urban centers of the world. We appreciate our supporters who pray for us and sacrificially fund our efforts.

God bless you all,
Jim and Linda Kincaid

Jim Kincaid, and his wife, Linda,
are your AWA Missionaries stationed at AWA's Alaska Mission Base

Psalm 8

O Lord, our Lord, how excellent is Thy name in all the earth! who hast set Thy glory above the heavens.

Out of the mouth of babes and sucklings hast Thou ordained strength because of thine enemies, that Thou mightest still the enemy and the avenger.

When I consider Thy heavens, the work of Thy fingers, the moon and the stars, which Thou hast ordained;

What is man, that Thou art mindful of him? and the son of man, that Thou visitest him?

For Thou hast made him a little lower than the angels, and hast crowned him with glory and honour.

Thou madest him to have dominion over the works of Thy hands; Thou hast put all things under his feet:

All sheep and oxen, yea, and the beasts of the field;

The fowl of the air, and the fish of the sea, and whatsoever passeth through the paths of the seas. O Lord our Lord, how excellent is Thy name in all the earth!