

We're Moving!

The Kincaids are planning to make a move!

A move you say? Absolutely! The plan is to make a move to better facilitate our aviation ministry. Our current property will be sold and a new hangar will be built on a better, more all-weather runway.

To bridge the strong possibility that we might be homeless for a period of time, we elected to build a tiny house in our current hangar this winter as an interim dwelling on the new property. The hope is to be able to pull the new house out of the hangar in about two weeks and haul it to the new property about 12 miles away. As you can see, it is super insulated and should be easy to heat.

Once the siding is on, we will pull it out of the hangar and finish the roof since there isn't enough overhead height to do that presently.

Meanwhile, Linda is packing up our belongings for the move. This will allow us to reduce our inventory of possessions, to get down to the basics. Some day soon, all our possessions will be of no value, unless they are invested in the kingdom of God.

We recall in Matthew 6:19-21 which Christ says, “Do not lay up for yourselves treasures on earth, where moth and rust destroy and where thieves break in and steal; but lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust destroys and where thieves do not break in and steal. For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also.”

The greatest treasures aren't the material possessions we have but the people we invest in. Heaven will be full of that kind of treasure; us, God's people. How valuable we must be for Christ Himself to die on the cross just to purchase us. What a blessing it is to share the Gospel message right where we're at, through how we live our daily lives, and when necessary, with our words.

We take this opportunity to thank those who support us by their prayers and funds.

God bless you all,

Jim and Linda Kincaid

Jim Kincaid, and his wife, Linda,
are your AWA Missionaries stationed at AWA's Alaska Mission Base